

We have provided your son/daughter with some maths work to keep their brains active over the summer holidays.

Numeracy Ninjas is an excellent way for students to recap on some key topics and to also enhance their Numeracy skills.

In addition to this, your child may wish to complete the challenge tasks which will introduce them to higher level problem solving questions, which will stretch and challenge our budding mathematicians.